✠ Music at The Cathedral of Saint Joseph ✠
2020-2021

Welcome to a new season of sacred music at The Cathedral of Saint Joseph. Music has always played an important role in the life of this Cathedral parish.

Included in this booklet is a listing of music to be sung by assembly, cantors and the Cathedral Choir, highlighting each Sunday, feast or liturgical season.

“Sing to the Lord a new song: sing to the Lord all the earth. Sing to the Lord, and bless his Name: proclaim the good news of his salvation from day to day.”
Psalm 96:1-2

“Music for the liturgy must be carefully chosen and prepared.”
Sing to the Lord (Music in Divine Worship) Article 122

“The treasury of sacred music is to be preserved and fostered with great care. Choirs must be diligently developed, especially in cathedral churches.”
Constitution of the Sacred Liturgy, Article 114

“There is a profound and mysterious relationship between music and hope, between song and eternal life.”
Pope Benedict XVI, 25 April 2008

“All other things being equal, Gregorian chant holds pride of place because it is proper to the Roman Liturgy. Other types of sacred music, in particular polyphony, are in no way excluded, provided that they correspond to the spirit of the liturgical action and that they foster the participation of the faithful.”
General Instruction of the Roman Missal (Third Typical Edition), 2002

The hymns, ritual and liturgical music on the hymnlist are drawn from the following sources:

- HPSC (Hymns, Psalm & Spiritual Canticles) – BACE Publishing
- WIV (Worship IV); WIII (Worship III); WLH (Worship Liturgy of the Hours), RS (Ritual Song), GC (Gather Comprehensive), HH (Hymnal of the Hours) – GIA Publications
- AH (Adoremus Hymnal) – Ignatius Press
- CH (Collegeville Hymnal), BFW (By Flowing Waters) – Liturgical Press
- TM (Today’s Missal), MI (Music Issue), BB (Breaking Bread), JS (Journey Songs), LTC (Laus Tibi Christie), Entrance and Communion Antiphons (Columba Kelly, OSB) – OCP Publications
- PMB (People’s Mass Book) – WLP/JS Paulch
- GR (Gradulae Romanum)
- LU (Liber Usualis)
- LCM (Lumen Christi Missal), SEP (Simple English Propers), Adam Bartlett
- Vatican II Hymnal (Corpus Christi Watershed)

10:30 a.m. Pontifical Mass:

- Introit, Congregational Refrain and Psalm verses replace the Processional Hymn.
- Act of Penitence (in the various forms) and Gloria are always sung.
- Communion Antiphon, Congregational Refrain and Psalm verses replace the Communion Chant.

At the time of the writing and publication of this annual hymnlist we are still in the midst of the global COVID-19 pandemic. As a result, full choral ensembles are not in session, assembly singing is not encouraged, large gatherings limited and the distribution of worship aids prohibited. Routine and everyday life came to an abrupt halt throughout the entirety of the world in the first few months of 2020. Effecting every aspect of communal, personal and commercial life here in the United States and around the globe, churches were forced to close and many still remain so today. [As a side note, this greatly affected Holy Week of 2020. The Vatican decree: “In Time of COVID” is included in the appendix]. As of yet, our calendars remain to be codified because the future remains very uncertain. All concerts have been canceled this coming year including the annual performance of Messiah and Lessons and Carols. Hopefully the situation improves in 2021. Taking this into account, the hymnlist is extremely tentative in nature and meant to serve as a loose reference to help guide the Cathedral music ministry forward.

ORDINARY TIME

Due to COVID-19, assembly singing is not being encouraged. Although hymns are listed, we will be using the Introit and Communion Antiphon along with the congregational refrain and psalm verses. Instrumental music will serve during the Offertory and in place of a Recessional Hymn. We will also switch-out the ordinaries for lesser known settings. Admittedly, this is not optimal and contrary to what we typically strive to achieve. However, using less familiar music will enable us to maintain a certain style of liturgy while minimizing assembly participation. This move is temporary. We will resort to normal praxis when the current health situation has abated. Our Lady, Comforter of the Afflicted, pray for us.

The following Ordinaries are in place:

Penitential Act: Kyrie eleison (Missa Simplex, Richard Proulx)
Gloria: Antiphonal Gloria from “Congregational Mass” (Lee)
Sanctus: Holy (Mass of St. Gregory the Great, Luke Mayernik)
Mystery of Faith: We proclaim your death (Mass of St. Gregory the Great)
Great Amen: Mass of St. Gregory the Great
Agnus Dei: Lamb of God (Missa Simplex)

ADVENT / LITURGICAL YEAR “B”

“Advent has a two-fold character: as a sermon to prepare for Christmas when Christ’s first coming to us is remembered; as a season when that remembrance directs our mind and heart to await Christ’s second coming at the end of time. Advent thus is a period of devout and joyful expectation.” (General Norms for the Liturgical Year and Calendar, #39).

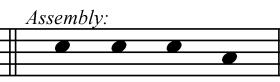

Note: During the seasons of Advent and Christmas, “Verbum domini” is chanted following the first and second readings.

After the first reading:

Lector or Cantor:  The word of the Lord.	Assembly:  Thanks be to God.

Reader/Cantor:  Ver-bum Do-mi-ni.	Assembly:  De-o gra-ti-as.
--	--

After the second reading or if there is only reading before the Gospel:

Lector or Cantor:  The word of the Lord.	Assembly:  Thanks be to God.

LENT

The annual Lenten season is the fitting time to climb the holy mountain of Easter. The Lenten season has a double character, namely to prepare both catechumens and faithful to celebrate the paschal mystery. The catechumens, both with the rite of elections and scrutinizes, and by catechesis, are prepared for the celebration of the sacraments of Christian initiation; the faithful, ever more attentive to the Word of God and prayer, prepare themselves by penance, for the renewal of their baptismal promises (Ceremoniale episcoporum, 249).

Note: During the seasons of Lent and Easter, “Verbum domini” is chanted following the first and second readings.

After the first reading:

Lector or Cantor:                      Assembly:

The word of the                      Lord.                      Thanks be                      to God.

Reader/Cantor:                      Assembly:

Ver-bum Do-mi - ni.                      De - o                      gra - ti - as.

After the second reading or if there is only reading before the Gospel:

Lector or Cantor:                      Assembly:

The word of the                      Lord.                      Thanks be                      to God.

Reader/Cantor:                      Assembly:

Ver-bum Do - mi - ni.                      De - o                      gra - ti - as.

HOLY WEEK AND EASTER TRIDUUM

Christ redeemed us all and gave perfect glory to God principally through his paschal mystery: dying he destroyed our death and rising he restored our life. Therefore, the Easter triduum of the passion and resurrection of Christ is the culmination of the entire liturgical year. Thus the solemnity of Easter has the same kind of preeminence in the liturgical year that Sunday has in the week. The Easter triduum begins with the Evening Mass of the Lord's Supper, reaches its high point in the Easter vigil, and closes with evening prayer on Easter Sunday (General Norms, 18-19).

✠ Sunday 28 March 2021: Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord

On this day the Church recalls the entrance of Christ the Lord into Jerusalem to accomplish his Paschal Mystery. Accordingly, the memorial of this entrance of the Lord takes place at all masses, by means of the Procession or the Solemn Entrance before the principal Mass or the Simple Entrance before other Masses. The Solemn Entrance, but not the Procession, may be repeated before other Masses that are usually celebrated with a large gathering of people. It is desirable that, where neither the Procession nor the Solemn Entrance can take place, there be a sacred celebration of the Word of God on the messianic entrance and on the Passion of the Lord, either on a Saturday evening or on Sunday at a convenient time.

Commemoration of the Lord's Entrance into Jerusalem

Tuesday 30 March 2021:

Tuesday of Holy Week / Chrism Mass

All Christians are anointed because all are filled with the Spirit's gifts for the building up of the church and the church's service to the world. In every local church one Christian presides in love and orchestrates the church's ministry. This is the bishop, or chief pastor. It is not surprising, therefore, that the most ancient liturgical witnesses designate the bishop as the consecrator of the sacramental oils. Although priests once blessed the oils of the catechumens and the sick and may do so in some circumstances, only the bishop may consecrate the chrism with which the baptized are sealed at confirmation and ordination. This rite is one of the last rites of preparation before the Triduum begins. Before the local church baptizes, it prepares the chrism which will be used in the Vigil.

This celebration has always retained a special character of collegiality. Even in the centuries when Eucharistic concelebration had disappeared from the church's life, the ritual for the blessing and consecration of oils retained strong elements which reminded all that ministry in the church is never the work of an individual but part of a community of ministers of different gifts and responsibilities. The present celebration of the rite has been restored as full concelebration of the bishop with his clergy and with the full participation of the laity.

Chrism Mass, 6:00 p.m.

Procession: Choral anthem – Ecce Sacerdos (Vittoria or Elgar): Behold a great priest, who in his days pleased God and found the just. (Ecclesiasticus 43:16, 27)

Introit: Jesus Christ has made us into a kingdom, priests for his God and Father. To him be glory and power for ever and ever. Amen. (Rev. 1:6) (Setting by Gouin OR Kelly)

(Processional Hymn: "Introit for Chrism Mass" [Nettleton])

Penitential Act: Kyrie eleison from Missa Brevis (Gabrieli OR Palestrina)

Gloria: Missa Dominator Deus (Chant, Roman Missal III) (adpt. Abbott)

Friday of the Passion of the Lord (Good Friday)

- 9:00 a.m. Morning Prayer – Consult separate worship aid
- 3:00 p.m. Service

According to the Church's ancient tradition, Mass is not celebrated today. The celebration of the Lord's Passion consists of three parts: Liturgy of the Word, Veneration of the Cross and Holy Communion.

PART I: LITURGY OF THE WORD

First Reading: Isaiah 52:13-53:12 (40ABC)

Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 31 – Father, into your hands I commend my spirit. (Kelly)

Second Reading: Hebrews 4:14-16; 5:7-9

Gospel Acclamation: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ, King of endless glory! (Schoen)

Versicle: Christ became obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross.

Because of this, god greatly exalted him and bestowed him on the name which is above every other name. (Psalm Tone V)

Gospel: The Passion of the Lord According to John 18:1-19:42 – Chanted, setting by T. Marier
Homily

Solemn Intercessions

[The Liturgy of the Word concludes with the Solemn Intercessions, which take place in this way: the Deacon, if a Deacon is present, or if he is not, a lay minister, stands at the ambo, and sings or says the invitation in which the intention is expressed. Then all pray in silence for a while, and afterwards the Priest, standing at the chair or, if appropriate, at the altar, with hands extended, sings or says the prayer. The faithful may remain either kneeling or standing throughout the entire period of the prayers.]

[Cantor will intone 'Amen' at the end of each intercession.]

[Collection: Offering for the Preservation of the Sacred Places in the Holy Land]

Hymn: O Sacred Head Surrounded [Passion Chorale] – SATB verses

PART II: ADORATION OF THE HOLY CROSS

The Deacon accompanied by ministers, or another suitable minister, goes to the sacristy, from which, in procession, accompanied by two ministers with lighted candles, he carries the Cross, covered with a violet veil, through the church to the middle of the sanctuary. The Priest, standing before the altar and facing the people, receives the Cross, uncovers a little of its upper part and elevates it while beginning the Ecce lignum Crucis (Behold the wood of the Cross). He is assisted in singing by the Deacon or, if need be, by the choir. All respond, Come, let us adore. At the end of the singing, all kneel and for a brief moment adore in silence, while the Priest stand and holds the Cross raised.

Priest or Deacon:

Be - hold _____ the ___ wood ___ of the Cross, on which hung ___ the sal - va - tion

Assembly:

of the world. ___ Come, let us ___ a - dore.

Then the Priest uncovers the right arm of the Cross and again, raising up the Cross, begins, Behold the wood of the Cross, and everything takes place as above. Finally, he uncovers the Cross entirely and, raising it up, he begins the invitation Behold the wood of the Cross a third time and everything takes place like the first time.

Music during the Adoration of the Holy Cross:

1. O Cross of Christ [St. Flavian]
2. Jesus, Remember Me (Taizé)
3. O Crux Benedicta (Montiverdi)
4. Adoramus Te Christe (Dubois)
5. duet: Stabat Mater Dolorosa (Pergolesi)
6. Vere Languores Nostros (Lotti)*

*If needed

PART III: HOLY COMMUNION

[The Priest brings the ciborium with the Blessed Sacrament from the place of reposition to the altar without any procession, while all stand in silence. Two servers with lighted candles accompany him and place their candles near the altar on it. The Lord's Prayer is sung or recited at this point.]

- Communion:
1. Faithful Cross (Willan)
  2. Choral Anthem: O Bone Jesu (Palestrina)

[Following a prayer after communion and a prayer over the people, all depart in silence. The altar is then stripped at a convenient time.]

- 6:00 p.m. Stations of the Cross, Cathedral Organ Scholar

9:00 a.m. Morning Prayer – Consult separate worship aid

On Holy Saturday the Church waits at the Lord's tomb in prayer and fasting, meditation on his Passion and Death and on his Descent into Hell, and awaiting his Resurrection. The Church abstains from the Sacrifice of the Mass, with the sacred table left bare, until after the solemn Vigil, that is, the anticipation by night of the Resurrection, when the time comes for paschal joys, the abundance of which overflows to occupy fifty days. Holy Communion may only be given on this day as Viaticum.

The Great Vigil of Easter, 8:00 p.m.

By most ancient tradition, this is the night of keeping vigil for the Lord (Ex 12:42), in which, following the Gospel admonition (Lk 12:35-37), the faithful, carrying lighted lamps in their hands, should be like those looking for the Lord when he returns, so that at his coming he may find them awake and have them sit at his table. Of this night's Vigil, which is the greatest and most noble of all solemnities, there is to be only celebration in each church. It is arranged, moreover, in such a way that after the Lucernarium and Easter Proclamation (which constitutes the first part of this Vigil), Holy Church meditates on the wonders the Lord God has done for his people from the beginning, trusting in his word and promise (the second part, that is, the Liturgy of the Word) until, as day approaches, with new members reborn in Baptism (the third part), the Church is called to the table the Lord has prepared for his people, the memorial of his Death and Resurrection until he comes again (the fourth part).

PART I: LUCERNARIUM

The Blessing of the Fire and Preparation of the Candle

PROCESSION: When the candle has been lit, one of the ministers takes burning coals from the fire and places them in the thurible, and the Priest puts incense into it in the usual way. The Deacon or, if there is no Deacon, another suitable minister, takes the paschal candle and a procession forms. The thurifer with the smoking thurible precedes the Deacon or other minister who carries the paschal candle. After them follows the Priest with the ministers and the people, all holding in their hands unlit candles.

At the door of the church, the Deacon or other suitable minister, standing and raising up the candle, sings: Priest/Deacon intones: "The Light of Christ." or "Lumen Christi."

Cantor and Assembly: "Thanks be to God." or "Deo gratias."

The Priest lights his candle from the flame of the paschal candle. Then the Deacon processes to the middle of the darkened church and, standing and raising up the candle, sings a second time:

"The Light of Christ." or "Lumen Christi."

ALL: "Thanks be to God." or "Deo gratias."

All light their candles from the Easter candle and continue in procession. When the Deacon arrives before the altar, he stands facing the people, raises up the candle and sings a third time:

"The Light of Christ." or "Lumen Christi."

ALL: "Thanks be to God." or "Deo gratias."

The Easter Proclamation (Exsultet)

PART II: LITURGY OF THE WORD

There are seven readings from the Old Testament and two from the New (the Epistle and Gospel), all of which should be read whenever this can be done, so that the character of the Vigil, which demands an extended period of time, may be preserved. Nevertheless, where more serious pastoral circumstances demand it, the number of readings from the Old Testament may be reduced, always bearing in mind that the reading of the Word of God is a fundamental part of this Easter Vigil. At least three readings should be read from the Old Testament, both from the Law and from the Prophets, and their respective Responsorial Psalms should be sung. Never, moreover, should the reading of chapter 14 of Exodus with its canticle be omitted. Following each reading from the Old Testament the Responsorial Psalm is sung. Then all rise, the Bishop says, "Let us pray" and, after all have prayed for a while in silence, he says the prayer corresponding to the reading.

Reading I: Genesis 1:1-2:2

Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 104 – Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth. (Kelly)

Reading II: Genesis 22:1-18

Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 16 – You are my inheritance, O Lord. (Kelly)

Reading III: Exodus 14:15-15:1

Responsorial Psalm: Exodus 15 – Let us sing to the Lord, he has covered himself in glory. (Kelly)

Reading IV: Isaiah 54:5-14

Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 30 – I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me. (Kelly)

Reading V: Isaiah 55:1-11

Responsorial Psalm: Isaiah 12:2-6 – You will draw water joyfully from the springs of salvation. (Kelly)

Reading VI: Baruch 3:9-15, 32-4:4

Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 19 – Lord, you have the words of everlasting life. (Kelly)

Reading VII: Ezekiel 36:16-17a, 18-28

Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 42 – Like a deer that longs for running streams (Kelly)

[When baptism is not celebrated: Psalm 51 – Create a clean heart in me, O God. (Kelly)]

Gloria: Gloria from Missa DeAngelis (Chant, Mode V)

Epistle Reading: Romans 6:3-11

Gospel Acclamation: Solemn Alleluia intoned by Bishop and repeated three times, rising ½ step.

EASTER SEASON

During the Easter Season, the Church extends the joy and gladness of Easter day throughout several weeks. The Solemnity of Easter itself, and in particular the Great Easter Vigil, is the highpoint of the liturgical year. Since the celebration of the Easter feast is of such pre-eminence, the Church extends that celebration for seven days, called Easter Week. Each day of Easter Week is a solemnity of high rank, and rituals peculiar to Easter (like the double “Alleluia” sung at the dismissal) are continued each day during Easter Week. The importance of the “Week of Easters” is such that the Church multiplies it seven times seven, creating a season of joy and festivity. Thus, the Easter Season is highly symbolic in length, a season of 7 times 7 days, culminating in the descent of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost (pente meaning “fiftieth”).

✠ Twenty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Introit: I call to you all day long, have mercy on me, O Lord. You are good and forgiving, full of love for all who call to you. (Psalm 86:3,5)

Offertory Antiphon: Deign, O Lord, to rescue me. Let all be put to shame and confusion who seek to snatch away my life. (Psalm 40:14a, 15a) [Verses of Psalm 47 can also be sung between repetitions of the antiphon.]

Communion Antiphon: O Lord, how great is the depth of the kindness which you have shown to those who love you. (Psalm 31:20)

✠ Twenty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

Introit: Lord, you are just, and the judgments you make are right. Show mercy when you judge me, your servant. (Psalm 119:137, 124)

Offertory Antiphon: I, Daniel, prayed to the Lord, my God, and confessed: “Hear, therefore, O God, the prayer and petition of your servant. O Lord, let your face shine upon your sanctuary; be attentive and act without delay, because this city and your people bear your name!” (Daniel 9:4a, 17, 19)
[Verses of Psalm 113 or Psalm 125 can also be sung between repetitions of the antiphon.]

Communion Antiphon: Like a deer that longs for running streams, my soul longs for you, my God. My soul is thirsting for the living God. (Psalm 42:2-3)

OR I am the light of the world, says the Lord; the man who follows me will have the light of life. (John 8:12)

✠ Twenty-Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Introit: Give peace, Lord to those who wait for you and your prophets will proclaim you as you deserve. Hear the prayers of your servant and of your people Israel. (Sirach 36:18)

Offertory Antiphon: Moses consecrated an altar to the Lord, offering on it burnt offerings and sacrificial victims. He made the evening sacrifice as a fragrant offering to the Lord God, in the sight of the children of Israel. (Ex 24:4-5). [Verses of Psalm 113 or psalm 125 can also be sung between repetitions of the antiphon.]

Communion Antiphon: O God, how much we value your mercy! All mankind can gather under your protection. (Psalm 36:8)

✠ Twenty-Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Introit: I am the Savior of all people, says the Lord. Whatever their troubles, I will answer their cry, and I will always be their Lord.

Offertory Antiphon: Though I walk amid distress, you preserve me; against the anger of my enemies you raise your hand, your right hand saves me. (Psalm 138:7). [Verses of Psalm 113 or Psalm 125 can also be sung between repetitions of the antiphon.]

Communion Antiphon: You have laid down your precepts to be faithfully kept. May my footsteps be firm in keeping your commands. (Psalm 118:4-5)

OR I am the Good Shepherd, says the Lord; I know my sheep, and mine know me. (John 10:14)

✠ Twenty-Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Introit: O Lord, you had just cause to judge men as you did: because we sinned against you and disobeyed your will. But now show us your greatness of heart, and treat us with your unbounded kindness. (Daniel 3:31, 29, 30, 43, 42)

Offertory Antiphon: By the streams of Babylon we sat and wept when we remembered Zion. (Psalm 137:1). [Verses of Psalm 113 or Psalm 125 can also be sung between repetitions of the antiphon.]

Communion Antiphon: O Lord, remember the words you spoke to me, your servant, which made me live in hope and consoled me when I was downcast. (Psalm 118:49-50)

OR This is how we know what love is: Christ gave up his life for us; and we too must give up our lives for our brothers. (1 John 3:16)

✠ Twenty-Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time [Respect Life Sunday]

Introit: O Lord, you have given everything its place in the world, and no one can make it otherwise. For it is your creation, the heavens and the earth and the stars: you are the Lord of all. (Esther 13:9,10-11)

Offertory Antiphon: There was a blameless and upright man named Job, who feared God. So Satan was given power of Job's possessions and over his flesh, and he destroyed his property and sons and smote Job with severe boils. (Job 1:1b; 2:7). [Verses of Psalm 113 or Psalm 125 can also be sung between repetitions of the antiphon.]

Communion Antiphon: The Lord is good to those who hope in him, to those who are searching for his love. (Lamentations 3:25)

OR Because there is one bread, we, though many, are one body, for we all share in the one loaf and in the one cup. (1 Corinthians 10:17)

✠ Twenty-Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time [Vocation Awareness]

Introit: If you, O Lord, laid bare our guilt, who could endure it? But you are forgiving, God of Israel. (Psalm 130:3-4)

Offertory Antiphon: Remember me, O Lord, King of all power: and put a well-ordered speech in my mouth, that my words may be pleasing in your sight. (Esther 14:12-13). [Verses of Psalm 113 or Psalm 125 can also be sung between repetitions of the antiphon.]

Communion Antiphon: The rich suffer want and go hungry, but nothing is lacking to those who fear the Lord. (Psalm 33:11)

OR When the Lord is revealed we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is.

✠ Twenty-Ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Introit: I call upon you, God, for you will answer me; bend your ear and hear my prayer. Guard me as the pupil of your eye; hide me in the shade of your wings. (Psalm 16:6, 8)

Offertory Antiphon: And I will delight in your commands, which I love. And I will lift up my hands to your commands and meditate on your statutes. (Psalm 119:47-48). [Verses of Psalm 113 or Psalm 125 can also be sung between repetitions of the antiphon.]

Communion Antiphon: See how the eyes of the Lord are on those who fear him, on those who hope for his love, that he may rescue them from death and feed them in time of famine. (Psalm 32:18-19)

OR The Son of Man came to give his life as a ransom for many. (Mark 10:45)

✠ Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time [World Mission Sunday]

Introit: Let hearts rejoice who search for the Lord. Seek the Lord and his strength, seek always the face of the Lord. (Psalm 105:3-4)

Offertory Antiphon: O Lord, give me life according to your word. Give me discernment that I may know your decrees. (Psalm 119:107b, 125b) [Verses of Psalm 113 or Psalm 125 can also be sung between repetitions of the antiphon.]

Communion Antiphon: We will rejoice at the victory of God and make our boast in his great name. (Psalm 20:6)

✠ Thirty-First Sunday in Ordinary Time [Reformation Sunday]

DECREE

In time of Covid-19 (II)

Considering the rapidly evolving situation of the Covid-19 pandemic and taking into account observations which have come from Episcopal Conferences, this Congregation now offers an update to the general indications and suggestions already given to Bishops in the preceding decree of 19 March 2020.

Given that the date of Easter cannot be transferred, in the countries which have been struck by the disease and where restrictions around the assembly and movement of people have been imposed, Bishops and priests may celebrate the rites of Holy Week without the presence of the people and in a suitable place, avoiding concelebration and omitting the sign of peace.

The faithful should be informed of the beginning times of the celebrations so that they can prayerfully unite themselves in their homes. Means of live (not recorded) telematic broadcasts can be of help. In any event it remains important to dedicate an adequate time to prayer, giving importance above all to the Liturgia Horarum.

The Episcopal Conferences and individual dioceses will see to it that resources are provided to support family and personal prayer.

1 - Palm Sunday. The Commemoration of the Lord's Entrance into Jerusalem is to be celebrated within sacred buildings; in Cathedral churches the second form given in the Roman Missal is to be adopted; in parish churches and in other places the third form is to be used.

2 – The Chrism Mass. Evaluating the concrete situation in different countries, the Episcopal Conferences will be able to give indications about a possible transfer to another date.

3 – Holy Thursday. The washing of feet, which is already optional, is to be omitted. At the end of the Mass of the Lord's Supper the procession is also omitted and the Blessed Sacrament is to be kept in the tabernacle. On this day the faculty to celebrate Mass in a suitable place, without the presence of the people, is exceptionally granted to all priests.

4 – Good Friday. In the Universal Prayer, Bishops will arrange to have a special intention prepared for those who find themselves in distress, the sick, the dead, (cf. Missale Romanum). The adoration of the Cross by kissing it shall be limited solely to the celebrant.

5 – The Easter Vigil: Is to be celebrated only in Cathedral and parish churches. For the "Baptismal Liturgy" only the "Renewal of Baptismal Promises" is maintained (cf. Missale Romanum).

Seminaries, houses of clergy, monasteries and religious communities shall follow the indications of this decree.

Expressions of popular piety and processions which enrich the days of Holy Week and the Paschal Triduum can be transferred to other suitable days in the year, for example 14 and 15 September, according to the judgement of the Diocesan Bishop.

De mandato Summi Pontificis pro hoc tantum anno 2020.

From the offices of the Congregation for Divine Worship and the Discipline of the Sacraments,
25 March 2020, on the Solemnity of the Annunciation of the Lord.
